If the Board of Directors of the company fails to do so within the above-mentioned time limit, the shareholders shall have the right to bring a suit directly to the People's Court in their own name for the benefit of the company.

If the Board of Directors of the company fails to comply with the provisions of the first paragraph of this Article, the liable director shall be jointly and severally liable according to law.

Article 30 Subject to approval of the securities regulatory authorities under the State Council, holders of domestic shares of the Company may transfer all or part of their shares to foreign investors and have their shares listed and traded on an overseas stock exchange and may convert all or part of the domestic shares into overseas listed shares, and have these shares listed traded on an overseas stock exchange. The converted shares shall also comply with the regulatory procedures, provisions and requirements of the overseas securities market when listed and traded on an overseas stock exchange.

The Company does not need to hold a shareholders' general meeting or a class shareholders' general meeting to vote for the listing and trading of the converted shares on an overseas stock exchange or the conversion of domestic shares into overseas listed shares for listing and trading on an overseas stock exchange. The overseas listed shares converted from domestic shares shall be of the same class with as original overseas listed foreign shares, and they are both overseas listed shares.

Article 31 No changes resulting from share transfers may be made to the register of shareholders within 30 days prior to a shareholders' general meeting or five days prior to the record date set by the Company for the purpose of distribution of dividends.

Article 32 Any person who objects to the register of shareholders and asks to have his/her name entered in or removed from the register of shareholders may apply to the court of competent jurisdiction for rectification of the register of shareholders.

Article 33 Any shareholder who is registered in, or any person who requests to have his/her name entered in, the register of shareholders may, if his/her share certificates (hereinafter referred to as the “Original Certificates”) are lost, apply to the Company for replacement share certificates in respect of such shares (hereinafter referred to as the “Relevant Shares”). If a holder of domestic shares loses his/her share certificates and applies for their replacement, it shall be dealt with in accordance with the relevant requirements of the Company Law.

If a holder of overseas listed shares loses his/her share certificates and applies for their replacement, it may be dealt with in accordance with the laws, rules of the stock exchange or other relevant regulations of the place where the original register of holders of overseas listed shares is maintained.

If a holder of overseas listed shares loses his/her share certificates and applies for their replacement, the issue of replacement certificates to that holder shall comply with the following requirements:

- (I) the applicant shall submit an application in the standard format designated by the Company accompanied by a notarial document or statutory declaration, containing the grounds on which the application is made, the circumstances and evidence of the loss of the share certificates and the declaration that no other person may request to be registered as a shareholder in respect of the Relevant Shares.
- (II) no statement has been received by the Company from a person other than the applicant for having his/her name registered as a holder of the Relevant Shares before the Company came to a decision to issue the replacement certificates.
- (III) the Company shall, if it decides to issue a replacement certificate to the applicant, make an announcement of its intention to issue the replacement certificate in such newspapers designated by the Board. The announcement shall be made at least once every 30 days in a period of 90 days. The newspapers and periodicals designated by the Board shall be at least one Chinese and English newspaper recognized by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.
- (IV) the Company shall, prior to the publication of its announcement of intention to issue a replacement certificate, deliver to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange a copy of the announcement to be published. The Company may publish the announcement upon receiving a confirmation from the Hong Kong Stock Exchange that the announcement has been exhibited at its premises. The announcement shall be exhibited at the premises of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange for a period of 90 days. In case an application to issue a replacement certificate has been made without the consent of the registered holder of the Relevant Shares, the Company shall send by post to such registered shareholder a copy of the announcement to be published.
- (V) if, upon expiration of the 90-day period referred to in (III) and (IV) of this Article, the Company has not received from any person any objection to the issue of replacement share certificate, the Company may issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant according to his/her application.
- (VI) where the Company issues a replacement certificate under this Article, it shall forthwith cancel the Original Certificate and enter the cancellation and issue in the register of shareholders accordingly.
- (VII) all expenses relating to the cancellation of an Original Certificate and the issue of a replacement share certificate by the Company shall be borne by the applicant. The Company may refuse to take any action until a reasonable guarantee is provided by the applicant for such expenses.

Article 34 Where the Company issues a replacement certificate pursuant to these Articles of Association, the name of a bonafide purchaser who obtains the aforesaid new share certificate or a shareholder who is thereafter registered as the owner of such shares (in the case where he/she is a bonafide purchaser) shall not be removed from the register of shareholders.

Article 35 The Company shall not be liable for any damages sustained by any person by reason of the cancellation of the Original Certificate or the issue of the replacement certificate, unless the claimant proves that the Company has acted fraudulently.

Chapter 6 Rights and Obligations of Shareholders

Article 36 The Company shall establish the list of shareholders according to the certificate provided by the securities registration authority. The list of shareholders is sufficient evidence to prove that the shareholders hold the shares of the company. Shareholders of the Company are persons lawfully holding shares of the Company, with names recorded in the register of shareholders.

Article 32 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

A shareholder shall enjoy rights and bear obligations according to the class and quantity of his shares. Holders of the same class shall enjoy the same rights and bear the same obligations.

All classes of shareholders of the Company shall rank pari passu over any distribution by way of dividend or any other forms of distribution.

If a shareholder of the Company is a legal person, its rights shall be exercised by its legal representative or proxy of its legal representative on his behalf.

The Company shall not exercise any of its rights to freeze or otherwise impair any of the rights attaching to any shares of the Company by reason only that persons who are interested directly or indirectly therein have failed to disclose their interests to the Company.

Article 37 When the company holds a general meeting of shareholders, distributes dividends, liquidates and engages in other acts that need to confirm the identity of shareholders, the Board of Directors or the convenor of the general meeting of shareholders shall determine the date of registration of shares, and the shareholders registered after the close of the stock registration day shall be the shareholders who enjoy the relevant rights and interests.

Article 33 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

Article 38 Holders of ordinary shares of the Company shall have the following rights:

- (I) to obtain dividends and other distributions in proportion to the number of shares they hold;
- (II) to lawfully request to convene, summon, preside over, attend or appoint a proxy to attend shareholders' general meetings and to exercise corresponding voting rights;
- (III) to supervise, present suggestions on or make inquiries about the business activities of the Company;
- (IV) to transfer, gift or pledge their shares in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association;
- (V) to inspect and copy these Articles of Association, the register of shareholders, the minutes of the general meeting of shareholders, the resolutions of the Board of Directors, and the financial reports of the Company, and shareholders who meet the regulations can access the Company's accounting books and vouchers;
- (VI) upon termination or liquidation of the Company, to participate in the distribution of the remaining property of the Company in proportion to the quantity of shares held by them;

- (VIII) other rights stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or these Articles of Association.

Articles 57 and 110 of the Company Law

Article 34 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

Article 39 Where a shareholder requests to consult and copy the relevant information of the Company, the shareholder shall provide the Company with written documents proving the class and quantity of the Company's shares held by the shareholder, and the Company shall provide such documents at the request of the shareholder after verifying the identity of the shareholder.

Article 57 of the
Company Law

Article 35 of the
Guide to the Articles
of Association

Shareholders who request to access the Company's accounting books and vouchers shall submit a written request to the Company, explaining the purpose. If the Company has reasonable grounds to believe that shareholders' access to accounting books and vouchers has improper purposes and may harm the legitimate interests of the Company, it may refuse to provide access and shall respond in writing to shareholders within 15 days from the date of their written request, explaining the reasons. If the Company refuses to provide access, shareholders may file a lawsuit with the people's court. Shareholders may entrust intermediary agencies such as accounting firms and law firms to review the materials specified in the preceding paragraph. Shareholders and their entrusted accounting firms, law firms, and other intermediary agencies shall comply with the provisions of relevant laws and administrative regulations on the protection of state secrets, trade secrets, personal privacy, personal information, etc. when accessing and copying relevant materials. If shareholders request to access or copy relevant materials of a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, the provisions of the preceding paragraph shall apply.

Article 40 If the resolution of the general meeting of shareholders or the Board of Directors violates any law or administrative regulations, the shareholders shall have the right to request the people's court to invalidate the resolution.

Articles 25 and 26 of the Company Law

Article 36 of the
Guide to the Articles
of Association

If the convening procedure or voting method of the general meeting of shareholders or the Board of Directors violates laws, administrative regulations or the articles of Association, or the content of the resolution violates the articles of Association, the shareholders shall have the right to request the people's court to cancel the resolution within 60 days from the date of making the resolution. However, this shall not apply if such procedures for convening the shareholders' meeting or the voting methods only have minor defects that do not substantially affect the resolution.

If there is a dispute among the Board of Directors, shareholders or other relevant parties regarding the effectiveness of the shareholder meeting resolution, they shall promptly file a lawsuit with the people's court. Before the people's court makes a judgment or ruling to revoke the resolution, the relevant parties shall execute the resolution of the shareholders' general meeting. The Company, directors, and senior management should fulfill their duties effectively to ensure the normal operation of the Company.

If the people's court makes a judgment or ruling on relevant matters, the Company shall fulfill its information disclosure obligations in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, the provisions of the China Securities Regulatory Commission and the stock exchange, fully explain the impact, and actively cooperate with the execution after the judgment or ruling takes effect. Any corrections related to previous matters will be promptly handled and corresponding information disclosure obligations will be fulfilled.

Article 41 If any of the following situations occur, the resolution of the Company's shareholders' general meeting or Board of Directors shall not be established:

(I) Failure to convene a shareholders' general meeting or Board meeting to make a resolution;

(II) The shareholders' general meeting and the Board meeting did not vote on the resolution matters;

(III) The number of attendees or the number of voting rights held at the meeting does not meet the requirements stipulated in the Company Law or these Articles of Association;

(IV) The number of people who agree to the resolution or the number of voting rights held does not reach the number or number of voting rights stipulated in the Company Law or these Articles of Association.

Article 27 of the Company Law

Article 37 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

Article 42 If a director or senior manager other than members of the Audit Committee violates laws, administrative regulations or the provisions of the Articles of Association while performing his duties, thereby causing losses to the Company, the shareholder who holds more than 1% of the company's shares individually or in combination for more than 180 consecutive days shall have the right to request the Audit Committee in writing to bring a lawsuit to the people's court; If the member of the Audit Committee violates laws, administrative regulations or the provisions of the Articles of Association while performing the duties of the Company and causes losses to the Company, the aforementioned shareholders may request the Board of Directors in writing to bring a lawsuit to the people's court.

Article 189 of the Company Law

Article 38 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

If the Audit Committee or the Board of Directors refuses to bring a suit after receiving the written request of a shareholder as specified in the preceding paragraph, or fails to bring a suit within 30 days from the date of receiving the request, or if the circumstances are urgent and failure to bring a suit immediately will cause irreparable damage to the interests of the company, the shareholder as specified in the preceding paragraph shall have the right to bring a suit directly to the people's court in his own name for the interests of the company.

Where any other person infringes upon the lawful rights and interests of the company and causes losses to the company, the shareholders mentioned in the first paragraph of this Article may bring a suit to the People's Court in accordance with the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs.

If the directors, supervisors (if any), or senior management personnel of a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company violate laws, administrative regulations, or the provisions of these Articles of Association in the performance of their duties, causing losses to the Company, or if others infringe upon the legitimate rights and interests of the wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company and cause losses, shareholders who hold more than 1% of the Company's shares individually or collectively for more than 180 consecutive days may, in accordance with the provisions of the first three paragraphs of Article 189 of the Company Law, request in writing that the Board of Supervisory/the Audit Committee or Board of Directors of the wholly-owned subsidiary file a lawsuit with the people's court or directly file a lawsuit in their own name with the people's court.

Article 43 Where a director or senior manager violates laws, administrative regulations or the provisions of the Articles of Association and damages the interests of a shareholder, the shareholder may bring a lawsuit in a people's court.

Article 39 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

Article 44 Holders of ordinary shares of the Company shall assume the following obligations:

Article 23 of the Company Law

- (I) to observe laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association;
- (II) to pay subscription monies as per the number of shares subscribed and the method of subscription;
- (III) not to withdraw their shares, unless required by laws and regulations;
- (IV) not abuse the rights of shareholders to harm the interests of the Company or other shareholders; and not abuse the right of the independent status of the Company and the limited liability of shareholders to harm the interests of the Company's creditors;
- (V) to fulfil other obligations stipulated by laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association;

Articles 40 and 41 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

A shareholder of the Company who abuses the rights as a shareholder and causes losses to the company or other shareholders shall be liable for compensation according to law. Where a shareholder of the Company abuses the independent status of the company and the limited liability of the shareholder to evade debts and seriously damages the interests of the Company's creditors, the shareholder shall be jointly and severally liable for the debts of the Company.

- (XIII) to consider other matters that should be decided by the shareholders' general meeting in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and these Articles of Association.

Article 46 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

The shareholders' general meeting may authorize the Board of Directors to make resolutions on the Company's issue of bonds.

Article 47 The provision of any external guarantee of the Company shall be considered and passed by the Board. The guarantee offered by the Company to a shareholder or de facto controller and its related party of the Company shall be approved by the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 15 of the Company Law

When the shareholders' general meeting is considering a proposal to provide guarantee for any shareholder or de facto controller and its related party, the said shareholder or the shareholders controlled by the said de facto controller shall abstain from voting on the said proposal, and the said proposal shall be subject to approval by more than half of the voting rights of the other attending shareholders.

Article 48 The following guaranty acts of the Company shall be considered and approved by the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 135 of the Company Law

(1) any guarantee that the total amount of external guarantees of the Company and its subsidiaries controlled by the Company exceeds 50% of the audited net assets of the Company of the latest period;

Article 47 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

(2) any guarantee that the total amount of the Company's external guarantee exceeds 30% of the total audited assets of the Company of the latest period;

(3) the amount guaranteed to others by the Company within one year exceeds 30% of the total audited assets of the Company in the latest period;

(4) guarantees for objects with an asset-liability ratio of more than 70%;

(5) the amount of a single guarantee exceeds 10% of the audited net assets of the Company of the latest period;

(6) guarantees provided to shareholders, actual controllers and their affiliates.

Article 49 Without the approval by way of a special resolution at the shareholders' general meeting, the Company shall not enter into any contract with any party (other than a director and other senior management member) regarding the transfer of the management of all or any major part of the Company's businesses to such party unless the Company is in crisis and other special circumstances.

Article 85 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

Article 50 Shareholders' general meetings are classified into annual shareholders' general meetings and extraordinary shareholders' general meetings. Shareholders' general meetings shall be convened by the Board of Directors. The annual shareholders' general meetings shall be convened once a year within six months from the end of the previous fiscal year.

Article 6 of Opinions on Regulated Operation and Indepth Reform

The extraordinary shareholders' general meetings shall be convened as and when necessary. The Company shall convene an extraordinary shareholders' general meeting within 2 months from the occurrence of any of the following circumstances:

Article 113 of the Company Law

(I) when the number of directors is less than the number stipulated in the Company Law or two-thirds of the number required in these Articles of Association;

Rule 14, Appendix A1 to the Main Board Listing Rules

(II) when the unrecovered losses of the Company amount to one-third of the total amount of its paid-in share capital;

(III) where any shareholder(s) holding individually or collectively 10% or more of the Company's shares(including preferred shares with restored voting rights, etc.) request(s) for the convening of an extraordinary shareholders' general meeting;

Articles 48 and 49 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

(IV) when deemed necessary by the Board or when requested by the Audit Committee;

(V) other situations stipulated in laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or these Articles of Association.

Article 51 The Board of Directors shall convene the shareholders' general meetings on time within the prescribed period.

Article 52 of the
Guide to the Articles
of Association

With the consent of more than half of all independent non-executive directors, the independent non-executive directors have the right to propose to the Board an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders. For the proposal of the independent non-executive directors to hold an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders, the Board of Directors shall, in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, give a written feedback opinion agreeing or disagreeing to hold an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders within ten days after receiving the proposal. If the Board of Directors agrees to hold an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders, a notice of the convening of the general meeting of shareholders shall be issued within five days after the decision of the Board of Directors is made; If the Board of Directors does not agree to hold an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders, it shall give reasons and make a public announcement.

Article 52 The Audit Committee shall have the right to propose to the Board of Directors the convening of an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders and shall do so in writing. The Board of Directors shall, in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, give written feedback on whether to agree or disagree with the convening of the extraordinary general meeting of shareholders within ten days after receiving the proposal.

Article 53 of the
Guide to the Articles
of Association

If the Board of Directors agrees to hold an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders, a notice of the convening of the general meeting of shareholders shall be issued within five days after the decision of the Board of Directors is made, and the changes to the original proposal in the notice shall be approved by the Audit Committee.

If the Board of Directors does not agree to hold an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders, or fails to give feedback within ten days after receiving the proposal, it shall be deemed that the Board of Directors cannot perform or does not perform its duty to convene the meeting of the general meeting of shareholders, and the Audit Committee may convene and preside over the meeting on its own.

Article 53 A shareholder who holds more than 10% of the Company's shares(including preferred shares with restored voting rights, etc.) individually or in total shall have the right to request the Board of Directors to hold an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders, and shall do so in writing. The Board of Directors shall, in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, give written feedback on whether to agree or disagree with the convening of an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders within ten days after receiving the request.

Article 54 of the
Guide to the Articles
of Association

If the Board of Directors agrees to hold an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders, it shall issue a notice to convene the general meeting of shareholders within five days after the resolution of the Board of Directors is made, and the change of the original request in the notice shall be approved by the relevant shareholders.

If the Board of Directors does not agree to hold an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders, or fails to give feedback within ten days after receiving the request, the shareholders holding more than ten percent of the Company's shares(including preferred shares with restored voting rights, etc.) individually or in total shall have the right to propose to the Audit Committee to hold an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders, and shall make a request to the Audit Committee in writing.

If the Audit Committee agrees to hold an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders, it shall issue a notice to hold the general meeting of shareholders within five days after receiving the request, and the change of the original request in the notice shall be approved by the relevant shareholders.

If the Audit Committee fails to issue a notice of the shareholders' general meeting within the prescribed time limit, it shall be deemed that the Audit Committee does not convene and preside over the shareholders' general meeting. Shareholders who hold more than 10% of the Company's shares(including preferred shares with restored voting rights, etc.) individually or collectively for more than 90 consecutive days may convene and preside over the meeting on their own.

Article 54 If the Audit Committee or a shareholder decides to convene a shareholders' general meeting on its own, it shall notify the Board of Directors in writing and file with the stock exchange at the same time.

Article 55 of the
Guide to the Articles
of Association

Before the announcement of the resolution of the general meeting of shareholders, the shareholding ratio of summoned shareholders shall not be less than 10%.

The Audit Committee or the convening shareholders shall, when issuing the notice of the general meeting of shareholders and the announcement of the resolution of the general meeting of shareholders, submit relevant certification materials to the stock exchange.

Article 55 The Board of Directors and the Secretary of the Board of Directors shall cooperate with the Audit Committee or the general meeting of shareholders convened by the shareholders themselves. The Board of Directors will provide a list of shareholders on the date of registration.

Article 56 of the
Guide to the Articles
of Association

Article 56 The expenses necessary for the shareholders' general meeting convened by the Audit Committee or shareholders themselves shall be borne by the Company.

Article 57 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

Article 57 When the Company convenes a shareholders' general meeting, the Board of Directors, the Audit Committee and any shareholders individually or jointly holding 1% or more of the Company's shares(including preferred shares with restored voting rights, etc.) shall have the right to put forward proposals to the Company.

Article 115 of the Company Law

Rule 14, Appendix A1 to the Main Board Listing Rules

When the Company convenes a shareholders' general meeting, shareholders individually or jointly holding 1% or more of the total voting shares(including preferred shares with restored voting rights, etc.) of the Company are entitled to propose new resolutions in writing to the Company and submit them to the convener 10 days before the meeting. Temporary proposals should have clear agenda items and specific resolution matters. The convener shall issue a supplementary notice of the shareholders' general meeting within 2 days after receiving the proposal, notify other shareholders, announce the name or title of the shareholder who proposed the temporary proposal, their shareholding ratio, and the content of the new proposal, and submit the temporary proposal to the shareholders' general meeting for review. Except for temporary proposals that violate laws, administrative regulations, or the provisions of these Articles of Association, or are not within the scope of the shareholders' general meeting's powers. The Company shall not increase the shareholding ratio of shareholders who propose temporary proposals.

Article 59 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

Prior to the convening of the shareholders' general meeting, if eligible shareholders submit temporary proposals, their shareholding ratio during the period from the issuance of the proposal notice to the announcement of the meeting resolution shall not be less than 1%.

Except for the circumstances specified in the preceding paragraph, the convener shall not modify the proposals already listed in the notice of the shareholders' general meeting or add new proposals after issuing the notice of the shareholders' general meeting. Proposals that are not listed in the notice of the shareholders' general meeting or do not comply with the provisions of these Articles of Association shall not be voted on and resolutions shall not be made by the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 58 Where the Company convenes an annual general meeting, a notice shall be given 21 days(excluding the day of the meeting) before the meeting to notify each of the shareholders of the time and venue of the meeting and matters to be deliberated; the period of notification for an extraordinary general meeting shall be at least 15 days before the meeting is held (excluding the day of the meeting).

Article 115 of the Company Law

Rule 14, Appendix A1 to the Main Board Listing Rules

Notices of shareholders' general meetings served on holders of overseas listed shares may be published on the website designated by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and the website of the Company. Upon the publication of the announcement, all holders of overseas listed shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant shareholders' general meeting.

Article 60 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

Article 59 The shareholders' general meeting shall not decide on any matter not stated in the notice as referred in Article 57 and Article 58 of the Articles of Association.

Article 115 of the Company Law

Article 60 The notice of a shareholders' general meeting shall include the following matters:

- (I) it shall specify the time, venue and date of the meeting;
- (II) it shall set out the matters and proposals to be considered at the meeting;
- (III) Explicitly state that all ordinary shareholders (including preferred shareholders with restored voting rights) have the right to attend the shareholders' general meeting, and shareholders holding special voting shares have the right to attend the shareholders' general meeting and may appoint a proxy in writing to attend the meeting and vote. The proxy of the shareholder does not need to be a shareholder of the Company;
- (IV) it shall disclose the date of registration of shareholders entitled to attend the shareholders' general meeting;
- (V) it shall disclose the name and phone number of the permanent contact for the shareholders' general meeting;
- (VI) it shall disclose the voting times and procedures online or otherwise.

Article 61 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

Article 61 If the shareholders' general meeting intends to discuss the election of directors, the notice of the shareholders' general meeting will fully disclose the detailed information of the candidates of directors, including at least the following:

- (1) educational background, work experience, part-time job and other personal circumstances;
- (2) whether it is associated with the Company or its controlling shareholders and actual controllers;
- (3) disclosing the amount of shares held by the Company;
- (4) whether it has been punished by the CSRC and other relevant departments and punished by the stock exchanges.

Article 62 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

Except for the cumulative voting system for the election of directors, each candidate for director shall submit a single proposal.

Article 62 No shareholders' general meeting shall be adjourned or cancelled after notice of the shareholders' general meeting has been given, and no proposal set out in the notice of the shareholders' general meeting shall be cancelled without good reason. In case of delay or cancellation, the convenor shall make a public announcement and explain the reasons at least two working days before the scheduled meeting.

Article 63 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

Article 63 Shareholders are entitled to speak at general meetings and to vote at general meetings unless individual shareholders are required by the listing rules to waive their voting rights in respect of individual matters. The Company can provide convenience for shareholders to attend general meetings through video conferences, telephone conferences, and other means, allowing shareholders to use technology to attend and vote electronically in a virtual manner. Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a shareholders' general meeting shall be entitled to appoint one or more persons (whether a shareholder or not) as his/her proxy to attend and vote on his/her behalf. According to the appointment of the shareholder, a proxy so appointed shall:

Rules 14、18、19 Appendix A1 to the Main Board Listing Rules

- (I) have the same right as the shareholder to speak at the meeting;
- (II) have the right to individually or jointly demand a poll;
- (III) have the right to vote by hand or on a poll, but when more than one proxy has been appointed, the proxies only have the right to vote on a poll.

The clearing company shall have the right to appoint representatives or representatives of the Company to attend general meetings and creditor meetings of the Company and such representatives or representatives of the Company shall have the same legal rights as other shareholders, including the right to speak and vote.

Article 64 If an individual shareholder attends the meeting in person, he/she shall present his/her identity card or other valid certificates or certificates to show his/her identity; if an individual shareholder appoints a proxy to attend the meeting, the proxy shall present his/her identity card and the shareholder's power of attorney.

Article 66 of the
Guide to the Articles
of Association

The legal representative or the agent appointed by the legal representative shall attend the meeting. If the legal representative attends the meeting, he/she shall present his/her identity card and a valid certificate to prove that he/she has the qualification of legal representative; if an agent is authorized to attend the meeting, the agent shall present his/her identity card and a written power of attorney issued by the legal representative of the corporate shareholder.

Article 65 The form appointing a voting proxy shall be placed at the domicile of the Company or at such other place as specified in the notice of the meeting within 24 hours prior to the meeting at which the proxy is authorized to vote. Where such proxy form is signed by another person as authorized by the appointer, the power of attorney or other authorization document shall be notarized. The notarized power of attorney or other authorization document shall be placed together with the form appointing the voting proxy at the domicile of the Company or at such other place as specified in the notice of the meeting.

Opinions of HKSCC

Where the appointer is a legal person, its legal representative or a person authorized by the Board or other decision-making body shall be entitled to attend the shareholders' general meeting of the Company as the representative of such legal person.

Where the said shareholder is a recognized clearing house (or its agent) as defined in the relevant ordinance enacted from time to time in Hong Kong, the shareholder may authorize one or more persons as it thinks fit to act as its representative(s) at any shareholders' general meeting or any class meeting provided that, if more than one person is so authorized, the power of attorney shall clearly state the number and class of shares for which each person is so authorized and shall be signed by the authorized personnel appointed by the recognized clearing house. The persons so authorized may represent the recognized clearing house (or its agent) to exercise the rights at any meeting (without being required to present share certificate, notarized power of attorney and/or further evidence of due authorization), as if such person were an individual shareholder of the Company.

Article 66 The power of attorney issued by shareholders to authorize others to attend the shareholders' general meeting shall include the following contents:

- (I) The name or title of the principal, the type and quantity of shares held in the Company;
- (II) Name or title of the agent;
- (III) Specific instructions from shareholders, including instructions to vote in favor, against, or abstain from each item on the agenda of the shareholders' general meeting;
- (IV) Date of issuance and validity period of the power of attorney;
- (V) Signature (or seal) of the principal. If the principal is a legal entity shareholder, the seal of the legal entity shall be affixed.

Articles 67 and 68 of the Guide to the
Articles of
Association

Article 67 A shareholders' general meeting shall be convened by the Board of Directors and chaired by the chairman of the Board. If the chairman of the Board is unable to or fails to perform his/her duties, the meeting shall be chaired by the director elected by more than half of the directors jointly. If no chairman of a meeting is appointed, shareholders present at the meeting may elect one person as a chairman of the meeting. If no chairman of the meeting is elected by shareholders for any reason, the shareholder present at the meeting holding the largest number of voting shares (including his/ her proxy) shall be the chairman of such meeting.

Articles 122 and 130
of the Company Law

Article 72 of the
Guide to the Articles
of Association

A shareholders' general meeting convened by the Audit Committee itself shall be presided over by the chairman of the Audit Committee. Where the chairman of the Audit Committee is unable or fails to fulfill the duties thereof, a member of the Audit Committee elected by more than half of the members of the Audit Committee shall chair the meeting.

A shareholders' general meeting convened by the shareholders themselves shall be chaired by the convener or their elected representative.

Where a shareholders' general meeting is held and the chairman of the meeting violates the rules of procedure which makes it difficult for the shareholders' general meeting to continue, a person may be elected at the shareholders' general meeting to act as the chairman so as to carry on with the shareholders' general meeting, subject to the approval of more than half of the attending shareholders having the voting rights. If no chairman of the meeting is elected by shareholders for any reason, the shareholder present at the meeting holding the largest number of voting shares (including his/ her proxy) shall be the chairman of such meeting.

Article 68 The resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting shall be classified as ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

Articles 80 and 93 of the Guide to the
Articles of
Association

Ordinary resolutions put forward at the shareholders' general meeting shall be adopted by not less than half of shareholders (including their proxies) with voting rights attending the meeting.

Special resolutions put forward at the shareholders' general meeting shall be adopted by not less than two-thirds of the shareholders (including their proxies) with voting rights attending the meeting.

A shareholder (including his/her proxy) present the meeting shall vote in favor of or against or abstain from voting on each resolution relating to every matter which has been put to vote at the relevant meeting, except where the securities registration and clearing institution, as a nominee holder under the Mainland-Hong Kong Stock Connect Scheme, makes declarations according to the intentions of the actual holders. If a shareholder or his/her proxy casts abstention vote or abstains from voting, any vote cast by such shareholder or his/her proxy shall not be counted in the voting results of the Company.

Article 69 Where any shareholder is required to waive his/her voting rights or is restricted to cast only affirmative or dissenting vote on a certain issue in accordance with the Listing Rules, any vote cast by the said shareholder or proxy thereof in violation of the relevant provisions or restrictions shall not be counted into the voting results.

Guide to the Articles
of Association

Article 72 Shareholders (including their proxy) shall exercise their voting rights by the number of voting shares they represent, and each share shall be entitled to one vote, except for shareholders of class stocks.

Article 116 of the
Company Law

When the shareholders' general meeting deliberates major matters affecting the interests of small and medium-sized investors, votes on small and medium-sized investors shall be counted separately. The results of individual counting shall be publicly disclosed in a timely manner.

Article 83 of the
Guide to the Articles
of Association

The shares of the Company held by the Company have no voting rights, and such shares are not included in the total number of shares with voting rights at the shareholders' general meeting.

If a shareholder's purchase of a company's voting shares violates the provisions of paragraph 1 and Paragraph 2 of Article 63 of the Securities Law, the shares exceeding the prescribed proportion shall not be allowed to exercise their voting rights within 36 months after the purchase, and shall not be included in the total number of shares with voting rights at the shareholders' general meeting.

The Board of Directors, independent non-executive directors, shareholders holding more than one percent of the voting shares of a company, or investor protection organizations established in accordance with laws, administrative regulations or the provisions of the CSRC may solicit shareholders' voting rights in public. The solicitation of voting rights shall fully disclose the specific voting intention and other information to the solicitor. It is prohibited to solicit shareholders' voting rights by means of compensation or compensation in disguised form. Except for statutory conditions, the Company shall not put forward a minimum shareholding limit on the solicitation of voting rights.

Article 73 When the shareholders' general meeting considers related transactions, affiliated shareholders shall not participate in voting, and the number of voting shares represented by them shall not be counted into the total number of valid votes; The announcement of the resolution of the general meeting of shareholders shall fully disclose the voting situation of non-affiliated shareholders.

Chapter 8 Board of Directors

Section 1 Directors

Article 81 Directors shall be elected or replaced at shareholders' general meetings and can be relieved of his/her duties by the shareholders' general meeting before the expiration of his/her term of office. The term of office for directors is 3 years, and they may be re-elected upon expiration of their term. However, the successive terms of independent non-executive directors may not be more than 9 years.

Articles 70 and 71 of the Company Law

Rule 4(3), Appendix A1 to the Main Board Listing Rules

The term of office of directors shall be calculated from the date of appointment until the expiration of the term of office of the current Board of Directors. If the term of office of a director expires without timely re-election, or if a director resigns during the term of office, resulting in the number of board members being less than the statutory number, the original director shall still perform the duties of a director in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, and the provisions of these Articles of Association until the newly elected director takes office. If a director resigns, they shall notify the Company in writing, and the resignation shall take effect on the date the Company receives the notice. However, if the circumstances specified in the preceding paragraph exist, the director shall continue to perform their duties.

Articles 100 and 106 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

Directors can be concurrently held by senior management personnel, but the total number of directors holding senior management positions and directors held by employee representatives shall not exceed half of the total number of directors of the Company. For companies with more than 300 employees, there should be employee representatives on the Board of Directors. The employee representatives in the Board of Directors are democratically elected by the Company's employees through the employee representative assembly, employee assembly, or other forms, and do not need to be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for deliberation. The number of employee representatives serving as directors in the Board of Directors of the Company is one.

If there are no other provisions in the law, shareholders have the right to dismiss any director (including the general manager or other executive director) by ordinary resolution at the shareholders' general meeting before the expiration of their term of office, and the dismissal shall take effect on the date of the resolution. If a director is dismissed before the expiration of his term without justifiable reasons, the director may demand compensation from the Company.

Article 82 A director may resign before his/her term of office expires. In resigning his/her duties, a director shall tender a written resignation to the Company. The resignation becomes effective on the date the Company receives the resignation report, and the Company will disclose relevant information within two trading days.

Rule 4(2), Appendix A1 to the Main Board Listing Rules

If any director resigns so that the membership of the Board falls short of the quorum, the said director shall continue fulfilling the duties as director pursuant to relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and these Articles of Association until a new director is elected.

Article 104 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

Any person appointed by the Board of Directors to fill a temporary vacancy or increase the number of board seats shall hold office only until the issuer's first annual general meeting after their appointment and shall be eligible for re-election at that time.

Article 83 If resignation of a director takes effect or if his/her term of office expires, the said director shall go through all handover formalities with the Board. His/her honesty obligation to the Company and shareholders thereof shall not terminate automatically at the end of his/her term of office but shall still be valid within the reasonable period specified in these Articles of Association. The responsibilities that directors should bear during their tenure due to the performance of their duties shall not be exempted or terminated upon resignation.

Article 105 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

Article 84 If any director fails to attend Board meetings in person or by proxy for two consecutive times, the said director shall be deemed incapable of performing his/her duties, and the Board shall suggest that the shareholders' general meeting dismiss the said director.

Article 103 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

Article 85 The Company shall have independent non-executive directors. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the provisions on the qualifications and obligations of directors in Chapter 11 of these Articles of Association shall apply to independent non-executive directors. At least one independent non-executive director of the Company shall be an accounting professional. Independent non-executive directors shall be equipped with adequate business or professional experience for competency, honestly fulfil their duties, and protect the interests of the Company, in particular the legitimate rights and interests of public shareholders, to ensure the sufficient representation of the interests of all shareholders. At least one independent non-executive director shall reside in Hong Kong on a regular basis.

Article 6 of the Opinions on Regulated Operation and In-depth Reform

Rule 19A.18(1) of the Main Board Listing Rules

The appointment requirements, nomination and election procedures, term of office, resignation, and powers of independent non-executive directors shall be implemented in accordance with relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, and regulatory rules of the place where the Company's stock is listed. If there is a conflict between shareholders or directors of a Company that has a significant impact on the Company's operation and management, independent non-executive directors should actively fulfill their duties and safeguard the overall interests of the listed Company.

Article 86 If directors perform their duties in the Company and cause harm to others, the Company shall bear the liability for compensation; If a director has intentional or gross negligence, they shall also be liable for compensation.

Article 191 of the
Company Law

If a director violates laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, or the provisions of these Articles of Association while performing Company duties and causes losses to the Company, they shall be liable for compensation.

Article 108 of the Guide
to the Articles of
Association

Article 87 Save as specified in these Articles of Association or duly authorized by the Board, no director shall act on behalf of the Company or the Board in his/her own name. If a director acts in his/her own name but a third party may reasonably think the said director is acting on behalf of the Company or the Board, the said director shall make a prior statement of his/her standpoint and capacity.

Article 107 of the Guide
to the Articles of
Association

Section 2 Board of Directors

Article 88 The Company shall have a Board of Directors consisting of 6 to 9 directors and set up one chairman. The chairman is elected by the Board of Directors with a majority vote of all directors. The chairman serves a term of 3 years and can be re-elected.

Articles 1 and 6 of the Opinions on Regulated Operation and In-depth Reform

The number of independent non-executive directors, at any time, shall be at least 3 and represent more than one third of members of the Board, and at least one of the independent non-executive directors must have appropriate professional qualifications or accounting or related financial management expertise. The term of office for independent non-executive directors is 3 years, and they may be re-elected for a maximum of 9 years, except as otherwise provided by relevant laws, regulations, and the listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company's stock is listed.

Article 68 of the Company Law

Rules 3.10 and 3.10A of the Main Board Listing Rules

The number of senior management members of the controlling shareholders serving concurrently as chairman or executive directors of the Company shall not exceed 2.

Article 109 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

Directors need not hold shares of the Company.

Article 89 The Board shall be accountable to the shareholders' general meeting and exercise the following functions and powers:

Article 67 of the Company Law

- (I) convening shareholders' general meetings, and reporting its work to the shareholders' general meeting;
- (II) executing the resolutions of the shareholders' general meetings;

- (IV) working out the Company's code of conduct and relevant compliance manual for its employees and directors, and reviewing and supervising their behaviors.

The Board shall be responsible for the above corporate governance functions and may also assign its responsibilities to one or more special committees under it.

Article 90 The Board of Directors shall determine the licensing rights of external investment, purchase and sale of assets, asset mortgage, external guarantee matters, entrusted financial management, connected transactions, donations, etc., and establish strict examination and decision-making procedures; For major investment projects, relevant experts and professionals shall be organized to conduct evaluation and report to the general meeting of shareholders for approval.

Article 113 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

Article 91 For the disposal of any fixed assets by the Board, if the aggregate of the expected value of the fixed assets proposed to be disposed of and the value of the fixed assets which had been disposed of within 4 months immediately preceding such proposal for disposal exceeds 33% of the fixed assets value shown in the most recent balance sheet reviewed at a shareholders' general meeting, the Board shall not dispose of or approve the disposal of such fixed assets without the approval by the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 4 of the Opinions on Regulated Operation and In-depth Reform

The disposal of fixed assets referred to in this Article includes the transfer of interests of certain assets, but excludes the provision of fixed assets as pledges to any guarantees.

Any breach of paragraph 1 of this Article shall not affect the validity of any transaction entered into by the Company in disposing of fixed assets.

Article 92 The chairman shall exercise the following functions and powers: (I) to preside over shareholders' general meetings and to convene and preside over Board meetings; (II) to supervise and examine the implementation of the resolutions of the Board; (III) to exercise other functions and powers granted by the Board.	Article 114 of the Guide to the Articles of Association
Where the chairman cannot fulfil the duty thereof, more than half of the directors shall jointly elect a director to fulfil the said duty.
The Board may, if necessary, authorize the chairman to exercise part of its functions and powers during its inter-session period.
Article 93 Board meetings shall be held at least 4 times a year, approximately once every quarter, shall be convened by the chairman.	Article 123 of the Company Law
In any of the following circumstances, the chairman shall convene and chair a Board meeting within 10 days after receipt of the proposal: (I) proposed by shareholders representing more than one tenth of the voting rights; (II) proposed by more than one third of the directors jointly; (III) proposed by the Audit Committee.	Sections C.5.1, Appendix C1 to the Main Board Listing Rules Articles 116 and 117 of the Guide to the Articles of Association
Article 94 A notice of Board meeting shall be served to all the directors 14 days in advance in the event of a regular meeting or 3 days in advance in the event of an extraordinary meeting. The responsible body of the Company shall serve a written meeting notice to all the directors by direct delivery, fax, express mail or other electronic communication means. If service is made indirectly, confirmation shall be made by telephone and the appropriate record thereof shall be made.	Sections C.5.3, Appendix C1 to the Main Board Listing Rules Articles 118 and 119 of the Guide to the Articles of Association
The notice of Board meeting shall include the following: (1) the date and place of the meeting; (2) the term of the meeting; (3) the matters and proposals; (4) the date of giving the notice.
Where an extraordinary Board meeting needs to be convened in emergency, the notice of meeting may be sent by telephone or by other verbal means at any time, but the convener shall make explanations at the meeting.

Article 95 A Board meeting shall be attended by more than half of the directors. Every director shall have the right to one vote. Save as otherwise specified in laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association, resolutions made by the Board shall be passed by more than half of all directors.

Article 124 of the
Company Law

If a director has a related relationship with an enterprise or individual involved in the matters under consideration by the Board of Directors, the director shall promptly report in writing to the Board of Directors. Directors with related relationships shall not exercise voting rights on the resolution, nor shall they act as proxies for other directors to exercise voting rights. Such Board meetings may not be held unless attended by more than half of all the non-associated Directors, and resolutions adopted at such meetings shall be passed by more than half of all the non-associated Directors. Where the number of the non-associated Directors attending the Board meetings is less than three, the matters shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for deliberation.

Articles 120 and 121 of the Guide to the Articles
of Association

Article 96 Directors shall attend Board meetings in person. Where any director cannot attend the meetings for any reason, he/she may authorize in writing another director to attend the meetings on his/her behalf, but the name of the agent, the matters to be represented, the scope of authorization, and the validity period should be stated in the power of attorney, and signed or stamped by the principal.

Article 123 of the Guide
to the Articles of
Association

The director attending the meetings on behalf of another director shall exercise rights within the scope of authorization. Where a director is not present at a Board meeting and fails to appoint a proxy to act on his/her behalf, the said director shall be deemed to have waived his/her rights to vote at the meeting.

Article 97 In respect of any important issue to be decided by the Board, a notice and adequate information shall be sent to all the directors before the deadline specified in these Articles of Association, in strict accordance with the specified procedure. Directors may require providing supplementary information. If more than one fourth of the directors or more than two independent non-executive directors think they cannot make judgments on relevant issues because the documents are inadequate or for other reasons, they can jointly propose to adjourn the Board meeting or suspend considering some issues, and the Board shall approve such proposal.

Articles 3 and 6 of the Opinions on Regulated
Operation and In-depth
Reform

Article 98 The Board may adopt written proposal in lieu of Board meeting, but the draft of the said proposal shall be sent to every director by direct delivery, mail, fax or e-mail. If the proposal has been sent to all the directors by the Board, and the number of the directors who have signed the proposal sent to the secretary to the Board by the aforesaid means satisfies the statutory quorum, the said proposal shall be deemed to be a resolution of the Board and have the same legal effect as a resolution passed at a Board meeting held in accordance with the procedures specified in relevant provisions of these Articles of Association.

Article 99 The Board shall file resolutions of the meeting as minutes, which shall be signed by the attending directors. The minutes of the Board meetings shall be kept as the Company archives for a period of not less than ten years. The minutes of Board meeting shall include the following: (1) the date and place of the meeting and the name of the convenor; (2) the name of the director present and the name of the director (proxy) who is appointed by others to attend the Board meeting; (3) agenda of the meeting; (4) points made by the Directors; (v) method and result of the vote on each resolution (the result of the vote shall indicate the number of votes for, against or abstention). The directors shall be responsible for the resolutions passed at Board meetings. Any director who votes for a resolution of the Board which runs counter to the laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association, thereby causing serious losses to the Company, shall be liable for compensation to the Company; however, a director who has been proved as having expressed dissenting opinions on the resolution and such opinions are recorded in the minutes of the meeting can be exempt from liability.

Rule 2.07B of the Main Board Listing Rules

Article 170 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

Unless the context otherwise specifies, the "announcement" referred to in these Articles of Association shall mean, in respect of announcements made to the holders of domestic shares or the announcements to be published in the PRC as required by the relevant requirements and these Articles of Association, the publication of an announcement in newspapers or periodicals in the PRC, and such newspapers or periodicals shall have been prescribed under the laws and administrative regulations of the PRC or by the securities regulatory authorities under the State Council. For notices issued by the Company to the holders of overseas listed shares by way of announcement, the Company shall on the same day submit an electronic version to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange through the Hong Kong Stock Exchange electronic publishing system for immediate release on the website of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange in accordance with the local listing rules, or publish an announcement in newspapers (including the publication of an advertisement in newspapers) in accordance with the local listing rules. All notices or other documents required under Chapter 13 of the Main Board Listing Rules to be sent by the Company to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange shall be in the English language, or accompanied by a certified English translation.

The announcement shall also be published on the Company's website at the same time. In addition, unless otherwise required in these Articles of Association, the notice shall be delivered to each of the registered addresses as set forth in the register of holders of overseas listed shares by personal delivery or prepaid mail so as to give the shareholders sufficient notice and time to exercise their rights or act in accordance with the terms of the notice.

Holders of the Company's overseas listed shares may select electronic version or mail in writing to receive corporate communication that the Company shall send to shareholders, and they can also select to receive Chinese or English version only, or both. Shareholders can give written notice in advance to the Company within reasonable time to revise the method and language version of receiving foregoing information under appropriate procedures.

Shareholders or directors who want to prove that notices, documents, information or written statements have been served on the Company shall provide evidential materials showing the same has been served on the correct address by ordinary means or by prepaid mail within the designated periods.

Notwithstanding the aforesaid provision which specifies providing and/ or dispatching written corporate communication to shareholders, for the purpose of the means by which the Company provides and/or dispatches its corporate communication to shareholders according to the Listing Rules, if the Company has obtained shareholders' prior written consent or deemed consent according to the relevant laws and regulations and the Listing Rules as amended from time to time, the Company may dispatch or provide corporate communication to its shareholders by electronic means or via publication on its website . Corporate communication includes but is not limited to circulars, annual reports, interim reports, quarterly reports, notices of shareholders' general meetings, and other types of corporate communication as specified in the Listing Rules.

If the Company is empowered to give notice by advertisement, such advertisements may be published in the newspapers and there is no prohibition on giving notice to shareholders with registered addresses outside Hong Kong.

Article 136 Save as otherwise specified in these Articles of Association, the means of service of notice specified in the preceding article shall apply to notice of the shareholders' general meetings, Board meetings and meetings of the Audit Committee held by the Company.

Article 137 In respect of the date of receiving a notice of the Company delivered by hand, the notice shall be deemed to be received upon signing (or affixing the seal) by the addressee on the note of receipt. If the notice is delivered by post, it shall be deemed to be received after 48 hours from the date upon which the post office receives the notice. If the notice is delivered by way of fax or email or by way of publishing information on websites, it shall be deemed to be received on the date it is sent or published. If the notice is delivered by way of announcement, it shall be deemed to be received on the date on which the announcement is first published. Such announcement shall be published on the newspapers or periodicals that satisfy the relevant requirements.

Article 174 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

Article 138 In the event that the listing rules of stock exchanges where the Company's shares are listed stipulate that the Company shall send, post, distribute, issue, announce or otherwise provide relevant documents of the Company in English and Chinese, and if the Company has made appropriate arrangement to confirm whether the shareholders intend to receive either the English or the Chinese version, the Company may (as per the intent stated by the shareholders) only send the English version or the Chinese version to the shareholders concerned to the extent permitted by the applicable laws and regulations and pursuant to the applicable laws and regulations.

Rule 2.07B of the Main Board Listing Rules

The debts of the Company prior to the division shall be undertaken by the companies after division, save as otherwise specified in the written agreement on debt repayment reached between the Company and its creditors before division.

Article 142 If the Company reduces its registered capital, it will prepare a balance sheet and property inventory.

Article 183 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

The Company shall notify creditors within 10 days from the date of the shareholders' general meeting's resolution to reduce registered capital, and publish an announcement in newspapers or the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within 30 days. Creditors have the right to demand the Company to repay its debts or provide corresponding guarantees within 30 days from the date of receiving the notice, or within 45 days from the date of announcement if they have not received the notice.

When the Company reduces its registered capital, it shall correspondingly reduce its capital contribution or shares in proportion to the proportion of shares held by shareholders, except as otherwise provided by law or these Articles of Association.

Article 143 If the Company still has losses after making up for them in accordance with Article 127 of these Articles of Association, it may reduce its registered capital to make up for the losses. If the registered capital is reduced to make up for losses, the Company shall not distribute to shareholders, nor shall it exempt shareholders from the obligation to pay capital contributions or share payments.

Article 184 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

If the registered capital is reduced in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the provisions of Article 142 of these Articles of Association shall not apply, but it shall be announced in newspapers or on the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within 30 days from the date of the shareholders' general meeting making the resolution to reduce the registered capital.

After the Company reduces its registered capital in accordance with the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs, profits shall not be distributed until the cumulative amount of statutory and discretionary reserves reaches 50% of the Company's registered capital.

Article 144 If the registered capital is reduced in violation of the Company Law and other relevant regulations, shareholders shall return the funds received, and if the shareholder's capital contribution is reduced or waived, it shall be restored to its original state; Shareholders and responsible directors and senior management personnel who cause losses to the Company shall be liable for compensation.

Article 185 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

Article 145 When the Company issues new shares to increase its registered capital, shareholders do not have the right of first refusal, except as otherwise provided in these Articles of Association or decided by the shareholders' general meeting resolution.

Article 186 of the Guide to the Articles of Association

Article 146 The Company shall, in accordance with laws, apply for change in its registration with the company registration authority where a change in any item in its registration arises as a result of any merger or division. Where the Company is dissolved, the Company shall apply for cancellation of its registration in accordance with laws. Where a new company is established, the Company shall apply for registration thereof in accordance with laws.
